

WARNING ! African Swine Fever (ASF)

African Swine Fever is a disease that affect all swine and wild boars causing high mortality, leading to serious economic losses and trade blockages in pig farming and wild boar hunting sectors.

THIS DISEASE IS NOT TRANSMISSIBLE TO HUMANS

The African Swine Fever virus can be easily spread through contaminated meat products

 NO !	 YES !

In case of suspicion of African Swine Fever in swine or wild boar, you must immediately contact DGAV or ICNF

DSAVR Norte: 253 783 013/16 - dsavrn@dgav.pt

DSAVR Algarve: 289 970 700 - dsavr.algarve@dgav.pt

DSAVR Centro: 271 208 335 - dsavrc@dgav.pt

ICNF: 213 507 900/4 - dgrac@icnf.pt

DSAVR Lisboa e Vale do Tejo: 263 730 580 - secretariado.lvt@dgav.pt

DVS-DRAD: 295 404 200 - info.drag@azores.gov.pt

DASVR Alentejo: 66 897 700 - secretariado_dsvralentejo@dgav.pt

DSPS-DRADR: 261 201 790 - dsav.dra.srap@madeira.gov.pt

See EFSA's animation on ASF in: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=eyQ4t1wHI2M>